

Mt. Carmel Christian Academy

New Family Referral Program

Come Grow With Us!

Save up to $500 off your tuition expense when you refer a new family to MCCA! The purpose of the New Family Referral Program is to boost student enrollment and expand and improve our academic offerings. See guidelines below.

Eligibility

- The New Family Referral Program is limited to new, full time K5-12 students enrolling in Mt. Carmel Christian Academy. A referred family must apply and be accepted in accordance with current MCCA admission guidelines. Current and former students of MCCA or their siblings are not eligible for referral. There is no self-referral. This form must be filed by August 14, 2020.
- The referring family must be currently enrolled in MCCA K5-12 program.
- There is a limit of three New Family Referral Program discounts per family.
- Referring families may choose to direct their tuition credit in any combination of three ways:
 - Credit toward personal tuition bill.
 - Credit toward new family's tuition.
 - Credit waived to benefit MCCA.
- In the event that a new or referring family leaves MCCA during the first semester, the family remaining at MCCA will no longer be eligible to receive the tuition discount.
- Referral credits will be applied in the beginning of the second semester.
- Referral form must be returned with a completed application.
- Referral may not be made retroactively after a new family has applied.
- For information or questions please contact Pr. Mike Nichols, Interim Administrator at (540) 743-9558 or mike@mcrbc.org.
